I hope this letter finds you well. I am reaching out to certify the quality of the English language translation conducted on the manuscript titled Currículo em chamus: Fahrenheit 451, o controle e o silenciamento da infância submitted for publication in Diálogo Educacional.

With over 10 years of experience in scientific editing and English language reviews, and over 30 years as an English teacher, I had the privilege of translating and refining the manuscript to ensure it meets the highest standards of scientific writing in English. My objective throughout the review was to enhance the clarity, coherence, and overall quality of the manuscript, ensuring that the text effectively communicates to the esteemed readership of Diálogo Educacional.

I recognize and respect the evaluation criteria of the journal, and I am confident that the manuscript, following my review, stands up to these standards in terms of language quality and comprehensibility.

Should there be any questions or concerns about the English translation and review, or if further clarifications are needed, please feel free to reach out to me.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
